

Orange County, CA (February 4, 2010) – Today, Howie's Game Shack, North America's premier LAN (Local Area Network) center announces a partnership with eNx Gaming. "We are very excited to have the privilege of working with Howie's," Nick, a manager of eNx Gaming said. "Howie's is the best places for all gamers to hang out."

Howie's has invented a new form of interactive entertainment, operating the largest PC and Xbox game centers in America, and introducing social gaming as never experienced before.

#####

About Howie's Game Shack

Open 7 days a week – 12 hours on the weekdays, even longer on weekends, this extravaganza includes: state-of-the-art gaming PCs, Xboxes with high-def LCD displays and outrageous sound chairs, exclusive features like Monster Energy Alley, world premier game releases (analogous to new movie premiers), tournaments and competitions to win valuable prizes, and fresh-baked pizza, snacks and beverages consumed while playing to avoid breaks in the action.

About eNx Gaming

eNx Gaming is a professional North American gaming organization composed of dedicated and experienced players and management. eNx Gaming was founded in late 2006; however, eNx Gaming experienced its official launch in 2009. With the goal of improving the gaming community, eNx Gaming provides community forums, gaming news, product reviews, event coverage, and several other tools to all gamers.